Solution

- The filter should be normalized so that the image is not 'amplified' (the intensity is not increased globally).

  The normalization factor k will be equal to the sum of all filter coefficients. In the present case, k=8